

NIA Launches a New Online Training Portal

Reston, Virginia—May 24, 2016—NIA recently launched a new online video streaming portal to expand its training and educational offerings and distribution. NIA members and non-members can access the Vimeo On Demand website to stream NIA's webinars or the Mechanical Insulation Installation Video Series.

Vimeo On Demand is an online video streaming website and provides a convenient option for users who no longer use DVDs or who want to train large groups at several locations and branches.

NIA is adding new videos frequently. Visit https://vimeo.com/niainfo/vod_pages to stream the current offerings:

- The English version of NIA's Mechanical Insulation Installation Video Series
- The Spanish version of NIA's Mechanical Insulation Installation Video Series
- NIA's Leadership, Financial, and Health and Safety Webinar Series

Pricing

The non-member pricing is listed on Vimeo and members must use their NIA Member Promo Code to get the reduced member pricing. Contact Kristin DiDomenico at kdidomenico@insulation.org to obtain your code.

NIA members receive a greatly reduced price and can stream the installation videos for $25 per video title for a 30-day rental or $230 for all 7 videos for a 6-month rental using their promo code. Non-members can stream the installation videos for $90 per video for a 30-day rental or $880 for all 7 videos for a 6-month rental. Several webinars are free and others are available for streaming for $75 for members and $99 for non-members for a 30-day rental. To purchase DVD copies of the video series or for assistance, please contact products@insulation.org.
